THE CANADIAN ROOTS EXCHANGE FIELD SCHOOL

3 Weeks, 20 Participants... And The Exchange Of A Lifetime!

Who: each program will consist of a group of 15-20 diverse Indigenous and non-Indigenous youth (ages 18-30) and two co-facilitators, of Indigenous and non-Indigenous heritage

What: a 3-week program with workshops and teachings by local Elders and educators; engagement with youth, local organizations and other community members; service learning projects and participation in community events.

Where: Moosonee/Moose Factory, ON: July 2011
Sault Ste. Marie/Garden River First Nation: August 2011

Why: to create opportunities for youth to connect with incredible teachers and knowledge keepers; to share and develop skills and knowledge, to learn from each other in a meaningful process of exchange.

Program Fees: The program cost is currently $1800.00 per participant. We understand that this fee can be prohibitive and needs-based bursaries will be available.
Please do not let finances prevent you from applying (we mean it!).

Course Credit: You may be able to obtain course credit for participation.
Talk to your department and visit our website for more information.
